TO: Diamond Plastics' Utility Customers
FROM: D. Bauer, S. Yentes
SUBJECT: Price Increase Effective September 1, 2020

Our industry is currently experiencing heavy worldwide demand in addition to unexpected resin manufacturing disruptions. As a result, our raw material suppliers have been and will be implementing substantial increases over the course of several months.

Effective September 1, 2020 we will increase pricing on our standard block book items as follows:

Immediate Ship	Block
Standard Quotations	Block

We appreciate your business and hope that you, your families and co-workers are staying safe during these extraordinary times.

TO: All Diamond Plastics' Customers

RE: Recent Market Developments

As many of you are aware, several resin manufacturers have recently declared force majeure for various reasons which have in turn created some difficulties in the PVC pipe market. These events are more than likely of a temporary nature; however, it is important for our customers to be aware that these developments may result in shortages of key items.

Diamond Plastics will continue to honor the terms and conditions of our order acceptance and quotations which are always based on product availability. Our goal is to minimize any disruption in your normal supply of Diamond Plastics' products.

Please contact your local representative for any concerns or questions you may have about your current orders and quotations.
