Presentation Topic

“EBMUD's Collaboration with UC Berkeley on the Center for Smart Infrastructure”

Presenters: David Katzev, EBMUD and Professor Kenichi Soga, UC Berkeley

The presentation will focus on the partnership between UC Berkeley and EBMUD to create a Center for Smart Infrastructure (CSI). The CSI will address challenges with aging infrastructure, climate change, water supply and natural resources, and emergency and community preparedness by using a holistic approach to provide resilient and sustainable networks through state of the art testing equipment, smart sensors and robotics, and big data and machine learning.
